Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Thursday 03 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mainly dry on Friday, bright in the east.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry and clear in the west but some patchy low cloud and fog again in the east, however this should clear by dawn in the freshening southwesterly winds.

Friday:
Largely dry, some sunshine in the south and east but cloudier across the west. A few showers possible in the far west and Hebrides. Breezy in the northwest.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
A few showers popping up on Saturday and cloudy in the west, drier and brighter for most of Scotland on Sunday and Monday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.